

Penguins by Broken Pages

Baby you're the only one that I see,
When you walk the streets.

Baby you're the sunshine of my day,
My sunlight, my moonlight.

Baby you're not gonna fade away,
You're my present, the gift of time.
But my heart would be running empty,
If you don't give your love to me.

I guess I'm like those penguins,
Searching for their stones,
Searching for their stones. 2x

Yea Yea I just want your hand to be with mine,
Yea Yea I just want to move closer to you.
Like the sun with the sea,
Like the wind with the trees.

Do you remember the song I tried to sing to you?
I couldn't sing it 'cause my heart won't stop shaking.
And when I felt your hands for the first time,
It sent chills down my spine.
